

Trapped in your own
You're all alone
The feeling inside
You cannot hide

Soon the shades of death crawl over you
I'm not like others, why do you bother

Go away, you will pay for your sins

Sanity
Not existing in your world
What remains
Nothing else than darkest void

I'm what I am
You don't understand

I might be strange
But not insane

Soon the shades of death crawl over you
I'm not like others, why do you bother
Go away, you will pay for your sins

Sanity
Not existing in your world
What remains
Nothing else than darkest void

I am what I am
I'm not like others
Why do you bother
Go away, go away
You will pay for your sins
Go away, go away
You will pay for your sins
INSANE
