

Love You Back

Metric

I'm gonna dry all my tears today
Got no patience for pain
Tell my friends to shade the sad parade
I'm gonna lift up and float away
It's been far too long
I wait in vain for better days in pouring rain

I'm gonna stand up and drag these chains
I've been held in place with wiry lace
And waltzed around the drain
When you've got no time
You're gonna want it back
You're gonna act so bad
You're gonna act so badly

I wanna love you back so bad
I wanna love you back so bad
I wanna love you back so bad
You're everyone I never had
I wanna love you back so bad
I wanna love you back so bad
I wanna love you back so bad
You're everyone I never had

I'm gonna cut out and waste time today
Dump some diamonds in the lake
Truly appreciate my luck can change
I'm gonna skip out, your wire won't stay
It's a thin disguise that barely hides
The pain it veils it falls away

I'm gonna dry all my tears today
I've been held in place with wiry lace
And waltzed around the drain
When you've got no time
You're gonna want it back
You're gonna want it badly
When you feel this life
When you feel this happy
You're gonna act so bad
You're gonna act so badly

I wanna love you back so bad
I wanna love you back so bad
I wanna love you back so bad
You're everyone I never had
I wanna love you back so bad
I wanna love you back so bad
I wanna love you back so bad
You're everyone I never had
I wanna love you back so bad
I wanna love you back so bad
I wanna love you back so bad
You're everyone I never had
