Forget everybody's names
Summer loving's had it's day
Let's go out and celebrate oh, oh

We could never get enough
From what I said was sinking down
Let's go out and have some fun oh, oh

I see something's not back
'Cause you left your friends outside
Hanging out with everyone
Holding onto each others arms
So let's take this home again
Let's do it tonight
Nothing is impossible
When we're in each others arms

Love, honey, sex, money
Text emoji's saying you love me
Love, honey, sex, money
Text emoji's saying you love me

Love, honey, sex, money
Text emoji's saying you love me

Well I gave up when summer came around
'Cause she could not fore tell when I was down
Now every night and every single day
I say I'm okay
Yeah, I'm okay, baby

I swear I'm okay
I swear I'm okay, baby
Even though my heart aches
My heart aches

Even though my heart aches
Even though my heart aches
My heart aches

Love, honey, sex, money
Text emoji's saying you love me
Love, honey, sex, money
Text emoji's saying you love me

Love, honey, sex, money
