

Christmas in Kyoto

Michael Franks

I can't forget the time
we spent Christmas in Kyoto
At that small hotel overlooking the pagoda with a thousand statues standing at attention and that one the same like in one of those films by what's his name?
Ah, Akira Kurosawa

Who could forget the time
we spent Christmas in Kyoto
On a? so fine in a circle of your kimono though we have no tree I feel certain you remember how your touch sublime and you holiday spirit let up mine

That Christmas in Kyoto
That Christmas in Kyoto
That perfect Christmas in Kyoto with you

Celebrating Christmas in kyoto
All? a photo only you and me
Has convinced me it is worth believing In giving and receiving unreservedly

And last for you are not least
The hotel provided sake and a Christmas feast kappamaki with wasabi Thru the window
we notice snowflakes started falling They were right up cute Systematically falling for me and you
That Christmas in Kyoto
That Christmas in Kyoto
That perfect Christmas in Kyoto with you
That Christmas in Kyoto
That Christmas in Kyoto
That perfect Christmas in Kyoto with you It's holly and likely I'll soon forget
That Christmas in Kyoto
That Christmas in Kyoto
Up and down chimney
That perfect Christmas in Kyoto with you
The Santa and you
That Christmas in Kyoto with you