

Written In The Sand

The Michael Schenker Group

I can't wait another minute
I can't wait another day
You really pushed it to the limit
I got stuck in yesterday

She's got all I want in the palm of her hand
And our fate is written in the sand
Written in the sand

I don't wanna wait forever
I just need you here today
Guess you found your little heaven
When your soul got swept away

On a distant planet
Somewhere far away
It's too much to handle
When you're miles away
I can't seem to stand it
When it's gone astray
I got stuck in yesterday

And our fate is written in the sand
