

Forgive

Mickey Gilley

Lonely nights when I go to bed
I think of all the things honey I've never said
Pay for my mistakes with our love oh please forgive me

You are you are so nice at times
But I've got myself a troublesome mind
But you're happy there by myself if me would only forgive

Forgive me that's all I desire of you
Am I asking honey more than you can give
You set my mind free but please oh please forgive

At times I wonder if it is true
Why I cry why I worry about you
When I'm sad and I'm blue forgive me I beg of you
