

Dark, Dark Night

Midge Ure

Sheer out of hope
Cried out of tears
Whats left but all my nothings
My life tied up
In silken threads
Out of time it's all for nothing

How long must I wait
For one moment to lean on
Just whispers from my radio
To paint my life in shades of black and white
How low must I fall
To find one dream to dream on
Oh, oh, oh this dark dark night

Sheer out of hope
Cried out of tears
All my nothings
My life tied up
All for nothing

How long must I wait
For one moment to lean on
Just whispers from my radio
To paint my life in shades of black and white
How low must I fall
To find one dream to dream on
Oh, oh, oh this dark dark night
