

Lay My Body Down

Midge Ure

Bring me my four white horses
Show me my hallowed ground
Bring me my lost companions

Oho, lay my body down

Bring me my glass of comfort
Give me your sacred vow
Bring on my faded glory

Oho, lay my body down
Lay me, lay my body down

Will you remember my name
In years to come
When all the power I had laid before me
Rushes o'er me
When you lay me down

(Surrender)
(Surrender)

Bring me my choir of angels
I hear the trumpets' sound
Bring on my judge and jury

Oho, lay my body down

Look to this golden mirror
This king has lost his crown
And bring on my Spanish dancers

Oho, lay my body down

Should you remember my name
Oh, in years to come
When all the glory I had made before you
Rushes o'er me
When you lay me down

Lay my body down
Oho, lay my body down
Ooho, lay my body down

(Surrender)
(Surrender)
(Surrender)
(Surrender)
(Surrender)
(Surrender)