Balloon Maker

Midlake

He was a great balloon maker The balloons were never known for speed There's no way that you'll get sweet You asked me to waste some time

Come out to see the sun, you're all we've got But I said, "I think there's more of them like us" And he said, "You might be right we'll find them in time Somewhere" I had a dream, yeah

He was a great balloon maker Then they outlawed all balloons He packed up and put his things away He asked me to waste some time

Come out to see the sun, you're all we've got But I said, "I think there's more of them like us" And he said, "You might be right we'll find them in time Somewhere" I had a dream

Come out to see the sun, you're all we've got But I said, "I think there's more of them like us" And he said, "You might be right we'll find them in time Somewhere"