

Empty Streets

Midnight Choir

Night ends, lovers part
Solitude whispers in my heart
I'm a little uncertain
I'm a little insecure
I ain't asking for much
There is always more
I feel like I'm drifting from shore to shore
Give me peace

I wanna see the world in bright lights tonight
I wanna be a part of something alive
I wanna be there when you reach for the sky
I wanna be the one to take you down again

Empty streets of desire
Desire

Violent swing of love
Stay with me, don't let go

I'm a little uncertain
I'm a little insecure
I ain't asking for much
There is always more
I feel like I'm drifting from shore to shore
Give me peace

I wanna see the world in bright lights tonight
I wanna be a part of something alive
I wanna be there when you reach for the sky
I wanna be the one to take you down again
