

Morning Sun, Evening Star

Miro Žbirka

You're my morning sun
We've just begun
To sail
Out into the deep
A giant leap
Of fail

There isn't much time life
To catch the rays
We couldn't stop the theft
Of yesterday
There's only one more chance
To get it right
Or we could lead the dance
Into the night

You're my morning sun
We've just begun
To sail
Out into the deep
A giant leap
Of fail

A giant leap
Of fail...
