

My Apologies li

Miss Fortune

Hanging onto the best of you
(And trying to forget)
For all the good I do
(You're stuck on a ledge)
I can't understand
Why you're walking away when we shared everything
You're so far away
While I'm sitting here dreaming about yesterday
Stuck inside my head

What would it take to make you see
Love is already there?
Tried so hard to make you just believe
Don't give up on me
Give me time 'cause I need to be
More than a memory
So hang onto whatever you need to

I'm dying inside while you're going out tonight
(But it's all a lie)
I can't see through the dark, the light has left your eyes
(I'm wondering why)
I can't do this anymore
Took a beating that I'll never forget
You're walking out the door

How'd I think that we'd survive?
Pray to God the stars align

(What would it take to make you see?)
Love is already there
Tried so hard to make you just believe
Don't give up on me
Give me time 'cause I need to be
More than a memory
So hang onto whatever you need to

Hanging onto the best of you
(But trying to forget)
For all the good I do
(You're stuck on a ledge)
You're so far away
While I'm sitting here dreaming about yesterday
In my head

What would it take to make you see?
Love is already there
Tried so hard to make you just believe
Don't give up on me
Give me time 'cause I need to be
More than a memory
So hang onto whatever you need to
