

The Tired and the Hurt

Moby

There was light and clear skies
There was hope and endless dreams
There was love and no dying
There were forests as far as I could see

So make me feel like this
The tired and the hurt
The cold unbroken seas
And everything we were

There was loss and there was fear a time to save all we had in here
There were seasons of cold and dark
Countless losses that we never saw

So make me feel like this
The tired and the hurt
The cold unbroken seas
And everything we were

So make me feel like this
The tired and the hurt
The cold unbroken seas
And everything we were

So make me feel like this
The tired and the hurt
The cold unbroken seas
And everything we were

So make me feel like this
The tired and the hurt
The cold unbroken seas
And everything we were
