

I know it's hard to see forever
It's like we're walking in the dark
But we can make it through whatever
If we follow our hearts

So let me carry you, carry you
Carry you now, all the way
No I won't, no I won't
No I won't let you down, let you down

If the stars never lose their shine
If clouds could float to the edge of the sky
If the sun could burn endlessly
I can love you 'til infinity
Baby girl
Baby girl
Let me love you for a long, long time yeah
Let me love you for a long, long time yeah
Baby girl

Some people said we'd never make it, no
But we were born to prove them wrong, yeah
And even when the world is fading, yeah
You know that I keep holding on

So let me carry you, carry you
Carry you now, all the way
No I won't, no I won't
No I won't let you down, let you down

If the stars never lose their shine
If clouds could float to the edge of the sky
If the sun could burn endlessly
I can love you 'til infinity
Baby girl, I can love you 'til infinity
Baby girl
Let me love you for a long, long time yeah
Let me love you for a long, long time yeah
Baby girl

Forever and ever 'til my heart beat dies
I would give you all of me

If the stars never lose their shine
If clouds could float to the edge of the sky
If the sun could burn endlessly
I can love you 'til infinity
Baby girl
Baby girl
Let me love you for a long, long time yeah
Let me love you for a long, long time yeah
Baby girl
