

I'm Gonna Live 'til I Die

Molly Hatchet

Another lonely evening Lady Jane
Almost had me fooled to your silly games
Sweet smell of jasmine in the air
Chimes are whispering in my ear
And all your loyal subjects have gone away... far away

Lost in translation Lady Jane
Lead into temptation again and again

I don't feel no pain no more
A broken heart and an empty soul
You gave yourself away again
I won't live like that no more

I'm gonna live 'til I die
I don't want you in my life
Gonna laugh 'til I cry
You gave me all the reasons why

I'm gonna live 'til I die
I don't want you in my life
Gonna laugh 'til I cry
Now it's time to say goodbye

Time for you to be lonely Lady Jane
No ones left to play your shady games no more

I don't feel no pain no more
A broken heart and an empty soul
You gave yourself away again
I won't live like that no more

I'm gonna live 'til I die
I don't want you in my life
Gonna laugh 'til I cry
You gave me all the reasons why

I'm gonna live 'til I die
I don't want you in my life
Gonna laugh 'til I cry
Now it's time to say goodbye

I don't feel no pain no more
A broken heart and an empty soul
You gave yourself away again
I won't live like that no more

I'm gonna live 'til I die
I don't want you in my life
Gonna laugh 'til I cry
You gave me all the reasons why

I'm gonna live 'til I die
I don't want you in my life
Gonna laugh 'til I cry
Now it's time to say goodbye

I'm gonna live 'til I die
I don't want you in my life
Gonna laugh 'til I cry
You gave me all the reasons why

I'm gonna live 'til I die
I don't want you in my life
Gonna laugh 'til I cry
Now it's time to say goodbye
