All Outta Nothin'

Monster Magnet

Bad bills and cherry bombs babe, are falling out of my head I'm sitting before you. but I'm dead You got something I want now honey, but it ain't what I need Just show the doctor, let it bleed

I'm sick of my own shit, darlin', I can't take no more Drag me out of my coma to the floor

I'm all outta nothing, there's nothing today A burnt out magician with nothing to say

I've got my pick of the floppers, that's right They're down at the store
But they ain't got a heartbeat
Give me more

I'm sick of the bullshit, baby
I won't take no more
Drag me out of my coma to the floor

I'm all outta nothing, there's nothing today A burnt out magician with nothing to say Who wants a miracle? Who wants to know? I'm all outta nothing with nowhere to go

The storm's coming from miles away will be much different than yesterday

Call out, baby, and call out loud

Your head's too cool to get lost in the crowd
