

Celebrate

Montell Jordan

Oh, baby
There's something I've been wanting to say
Ain't nothing that's gon' get in the way
No, not tonight
I'ma put time aside
I'm loving life
And, lady, you're the reason why

So let's have a party
I hope you don't mind
That I've invited everybody
'Cause I wanna show you
How much I love you
Like I'm supposed to
Give you what you need

So baby, I wanna
Celebrate my baby
I wanna
Celebrate my baby
So, baby, get up, take my hand
The time is right, get with your man
Celebrating (celebrating)
Celebrating (oh, yeah)

Oh, b
Just having you right here next to me, yeah
Ain't no one else I need on my team
I'm giving you all of me
Your love is all I need
We can show the world how [?]

So let's have a party
I hope you don't mind
That I've invited everybody
'Cause I wanna show you
How much I love you

Uh, so amazing
Every time you step into the room it's an occasion
Slow jam but you got my heart racing
Work of art, you deserve a celebration
May I kick a little something for the Gs who Riding with they queen as they breeze through
Two in the morning and we kicked it all night
'Cause ain't no going home, yeah
Uh, ooh, you too fly
Hopping off the plane and now we landed somewhere pool side
Give you what you need, they can't compete no matter who try
Girl [?] I'm pulling up whenever you slide
Eh, yeah, you ain't fazed tho
Go on and spread your wings, you my angel
In the church and the beehive with your halo
It's a vibe, we won't stop till you say so, woo

Celebrate my baby

Celebrate my baby
The time is now, get with your man
