

Change Your Last Name

Montell Jordan

What's it gonna take?
To sing a song, that simply shows
What I've been trying to say
Let's take the leap of faith
Tonight
See girl I'm not afraid
To take the time to tell you things
To wait it'd be too late
Let's start tomorrow
Tonight

I'm gonna meet you
At the altar one day
Oh my love
The world will be watching
You and I become one
If you meet me
At the altar one day of my life
I'll change, your last name
I'm gonna change, your last name
Oh... girl I'll change, your last name
To mine

The greatest love I've known
Has finally found her way to me
No more time alone
My angel's coming home
Tonight
We'll do our very best
The three of us
You, me and God
I know we'll pass the test
Of time...
Tonight

I'm gonna meet you
At the altar one day

Oh my love
The world will be watching
You and I become one
If you meet me
At the altar one day of my life
I'll change, your last name
I'm gonna change, your last name

Girl, there's nothing under the sun
More precious than my sweet one
Cue the music and
You walk in
I'm watching
Waiting for you to take
Take your place next to me
I'm no longer incomplete
I've finally found the better part of me

Oh, meet me

At the altar one day
The whole world will be watching
You and I become one
If you meet me
At the altar one day of my life
Girl I'm gonna change, your last name
Oh, I'll change your last name
Swear, I'll change, your last name
I'm gonna change, your last name
To mine
