Restless minds beneath the ground Through ghostly winds I hear the sound Crying forth in ancient tongues Eternal quest of vengeance From tombs of scorn cadavers rise Angered fury in their eyes Solemn rage, a need to kill Feasting on holy hordes Evil curse is carried forth zombies rage Burning holy images in life they were Forced to hail Eternal flames have purified their souls Born again in blasphemy, thy kingdom come Twisted oath nodebliwith Preying on those who seek the cross Let none be pardoned for their crimes Feeble race will die Scripture burns in infamy Tortured souls have been set free Taunting he who sits on high Pray thy kingdom come Banished from the living Bodies long decayed Mass of resurrection Sepulchers abandoned Insurgent souls arise Disseminating evil Curse of devastation Implored by hell's command Darkness rips the land Morbid priests serenity Sing praise Thy kingdom is at hand
