(ouh, maybe you're right)

When the party's over
You got no way to go

When the party's over
You got no way to go

When the party's over
You got no way to go

When the party's over
You got no way to go

When the party's over
You got no way to go

When the party's over
You got no way to go

When the party's over
You got no way to go

When the party's over
You got no way to go

When the party's over
You got no way to go

When the party's over
You got no way to go

When the party's over
You got no way to go

When the party's over
