

Northern Storm

Mortification

Northern Storm, invading the heart of my mind
Northern Storm, changing the mind of my heart

Power from on high, nothing compares with this awesome force
You must decide to never reject this powerful name
The thunder strikes, the chords of your heart feel the joy
The reign begins, how can anyone not love His ways

Northern Storm, piercing the ways of my soul
Northern Storm, directing the soul of my ways

Inflicting with power, my soul is possessed in a moment
Total control, no one can take this peace away
Mental persuasion, Jesus Christ the reign has begun Throne of my heart, called and chosen for this day

Invasion of my mind
The storm cloud builds overhead
Do not deny the Power of the storm to revive

Northern Storm, invading the heart of my mind
Northern Storm, changing the mind of my heart

How can you feel the reign of the storm if you deny Look to the wind, the king of all who strikes with Power
The storm is a fire, invading those with a heart of belief
Nothing will come, only the reborn bath in the force

Invasion of my mind
The storm cloud builds overhead
Do not deny the Power of the storm to revive

The Power, to revive, The Power, to revive, The Power
