

Modern Love

Mother Mother

She's the type who likes to leave on all the lights
So as I start to tremble, she can watch my secrets die.
And she's the one who likes a different kind of fun.
Peel away the layers till you're nothing and no one.

And it's true, yeah, it's true I fell for you.
Yeah it's true, true I fell into you.
This is love in the modern day, the modern way
This is love in a different time, a different place oh yeah
Yeah, yeah, oooh, yeah.

She's the language on the tongue of all the sinners.
She is the banquet serving up free love for dinner.

And it's true, yeah, it's true I fell for you.
Yeah it's true, true I fell into you.
This is love in the modern day, the modern way
This is love in a different time, a different place oh yeah
Yeah, yeah, oooh, yeah.

This is love.
This is love.
This is

This is love in the modern day, the modern way
This is love in a different time, a different place
This is love in the modern day, the modern way oh, yeah yeah, yeah, yeah, oooh yeah.
