You don't need a disclaimer
You're not really famous
So get your fucking chin out of the sky
I will never stop 'til I'm on top, create a new diversion
Virgins begging for a hit with original style
I don't need a disclaimer to get into heaven

Light it up and burn it down
You wanna blame me?
You never MET me!
On your knees...
Just a slave to a God of NOTHING! (Hey! Hey!)
Try and judge me...
(I'll) tie that rope around your neck and kick your--
Almost every major issue I see that faces opposition in the world today
Is a product of religious bigotry or criminal intent in the name of God
Who the fuck are you to tell me what I can and can't do or say?
No thanks, fuck you
It's my life, my body and my love to give
Dear Ignorance, I'll see you in hell!
