

Undead Ahead 2: The Tale of the Midnight Ride

Motionless in White

Everyone that you love is dead
Unholy ghost of Crane's delirium
Trace the fear of your silhouette
You wanted madness... Undead Ahead

Oh how the wind it whispers
The moonlit fog ignites
With Lucifer as witness
The pumpkin rides tonight

Crimson coagulates
Severed head bouquet
Body incomplete
Sealer of your fate
Crimson calligraphy
Written on the trees
Creature from the grave, Headless and hellbent for me

Line the streets
Murder for keeps
That's how you play trick or treat with a heart beat
Bloody does he, bloody does he storm through the gate way
Race the sunset, head for the bridge

You cannot kill that which has no soul or life to take
The blood of our beloved
The Hessian comes to claim

Crimson coagulates
Severed head bouquet
Body incomplete
Sealer of your fate
Crimson calligraphy
Written on the trees
Creature from the grave, Headless and hellbent for me

The woods, the woods
The bridge of souls too far to reach
You can't escape
Damnation on all hallows eve
This place is haunted
The woods, the woods
The bridge of souls too far to reach
You can't escape
Damnation on all hallows eve

Crimson coagulates
Severed head bouquet
Body incomplete
Sealer of your fate
Crimson calligraphy
Written on the trees

Live or die in the tale of the midnight ride
Where reality and superstition collide

Close your eyes kiss your dearest Katrina goodbye
And beware of the tale, tale of the midnight ride

Revenge is cold and their heads will roll
Menace in the moonlight
