

Remain

Mutemath

I've been dreaming
Dreaming of a day in the end
Waiting for someone
To wake me from the dream that I'm in
I've been confiscating
Every shred of hope that I can
I keep on mistaking
The future for the places I've been

Always the same
Always forever we remain
Always the same
I'm dying just to keep my place

I've been breaking
And repairing everything that I make
Just to feel important
And worth the little space that I take
I keep on delaying
Everything I'd rather avoid
Rapidly decaying
And panicking I'm losing the choice

Always the same
Always forever we remain
Always the same
I'm dying just to keep my place

Just keep on trying
Just keep fighting
Just keep going
Just keep surviving
Just keep walking
Just keep breathing
Just keep holding
Just keep believing

Always the same
Always forever we remain
Always the same
I'm dying just to keep my place

Always...

Just keep on trying
Just keep fighting
Just keep going
Just keep surviving
Just keep walking
Just keep breathing
Just keep holding
Just keep believing

Always the same
