Late Again

Late again, Forgive me friends, For I am late again, Til' the day I die, Lord knows I'll try, 'Cause I'm still late again. When they call my name outside those gates, I'll be on my way, Well that's all I can say, 'Cause I'm late again. Late again, Forgive me friends, For I am late again, Til' the day I die, Lord knows I'll try, 'Cause I'm still late again. With all the saints, that don't place blame On sunshine, rain or snow, Believe me 'cause I know. That I'm Late again, Forgive me friends, For I am late again, Til' the day I die, Lord knows I'll try, 'Cause I'm still late again I was late coming into this world, Don't be late going out I was late trying to put this record out Go. Late again, Forgive me friends, For I am late again, Til' the day I die, Lord knows I'll try, 'Cause I'm still late again. (2x) Til' the day I die, Lord knows I'll try, 'Cause I'm still late again.
