

These are the times I'm living for
These are the times I'm living for
Every day is better, than the one before

Turned off the phone so work will leave me alone
Can't stand to have the boss breathing down my neck
I don't need that check more than self respect

These are the times I'm living for
These are the times I'm living for
Every day is better, than the one before

So who's content in your experience
Sometimes what is real just don't make sense
The reflection in the looking glass is looking back
We've all been there like birds falling out of the air
The questions are many
The answers are few
But history has taught us
To keep playing through

These are the times I'm living for
These are the times I'm living for
Every day is better, than the one before

I ain't got time to wait on a sign
I said I ain't much to put down this time
I can't get enough to hold down the line
I don't need to read the stars to make them shine

These are the times I'm living for
These are the times I'm living for
Every day is better, than the one before

These are the times I'm living for
These are the times I'm living for
Every day is better, than the one before
