In The Beginning

My Brightest Diamond

In the beginning there was a spark Like two great cymbals clanging We met head on

There was no time All of life suspended And when you spoke one heart jumped into action

This the oldest story This the finest tale Our time, our question awaits Will we seize it Can we catch it, our reel to reel Our reel to reel My only chance at this I will take hold of it

This glorious day the earth is shaking Hallelujah, hallelujah And I will join the unending hymn Hallelujah, hallelujah

No matter no matter no matter what

This glorious day the earth is shaking Hallelujah, hallelujah And I will join the unending hymn Hallelujah, hallelujah Hallelujah, hallelujah
