

Remember the Time

Nana Darkman

CHORUS:

I remember the time the time that we had I remember the things that use to make you mad And I wish I could turn back the time And I wish I wouldn't cry every night I remember the time clock always tickin' that's no question i did you wrong i must confess not my intention when i mention your name the pain i feel ashamed if i could i would it's only me that i can blame my time was on i had to move no substitution i took the risk although no conclusion lack of piece of mind to go the same direction time is never personal you win or loose relationships that's the way how it goes deeply hurt from your head to your toes slow mo' see you dragging down the hole you should be where you belong in the front row i cried everyday improved my behaviour you can't see what i see tell me why are you in anger forgive your enemies let the lord be your saviour in god i will trust

'cause i know he will remember

rap 2:

join me on a ride what's the clue explanation talk about the time you and me let's go fishin' brainstorm' i bring the vibes shut your mouth better listen fighting everyday still don't know the definition time is money and time will tell sunshine in heaven or grill in hell society makes the pace join the race and obey one for the money and two the space three hooray i wanna thank g.o.d. the inventor kept at least an eye on me and put me in the center i remember 1996 in december booya is the name and nana is a member i cried everyday re-arranged my behaviour you can't see what i see tell why are you in anger forgive your enemies let the lord be your saviour finally he'll put you through,
'cause he will remember
