

A Crack in the Sky

Narnia

They have said the day is coming soon
They have said the day is near now
One day is a thousand years
A thousand years, one day
Divine perspective
Versus human pride and knowledge

Kingdoms turns to stone
Nations burn at the hand of man
There is a crack in the sky
Knees will bow as the light blind our eyes

Come see the greatest
Show in history
A rumbling across the sky

Kingdoms turns to stone
Nations burn at the hand of man
There is a crack in the sky
Knees will bow as the light blind our eyes

A triumphal return
And from darkness will turn
He has come
We have chosen
It's time

Descending from the throne
Kings of kings
And Lord of lords

Mountains are trembling
Waves flowing high
From the horizon
On a blink of an eye
A final crescendo
The tide rises high
He finally opens
The gates of the sky

There is a crack in the sky
Knees will bow as the light blind our eyes
A triumphal return
And from darkness will turn
He has come
We have chosen
It's time

There is a crack in the sky
Knees will bow as the light blind our eyes
There is a crack in the sky
