And a nightingale sang in Berkeley Square.

I may be right, I may be wrong,
But I'm perfectly willing to swear
That when you turned and smiled at me

The whole darn world seemed upside down.

The streets of town were paved with stars, It was such a romantic affair.

And as we kissed and said "Good-bye,"

A nightingale sang in Berkeley Square.

How strange it was, how sweet and strange; There was never a dream to compare With that hazy, crazy night we met When a nightingale sang in Berkeley Square.

This heart of mine beat loud and fast, Like a merry go round at the fair; For we were dancing cheek to cheek And a nightingale sang in Berkeley Squre.

*: When dawn came stealing up all gold and blue To interrupt our rendezvous, I still remember how you smiled and said, "Was that a dream or was it true?"

Our homeward step was just as light As the tap-dancing feet of Astaire And like an echo, far away,
