

Walk with Fire

Neaera

We are strangling our souls every day.
Our sacrifice for the modern age.
Dispirited, a ghost to ourselves.
Alienated, lifeless shells.

We are so sated and we are so much.
But we will never, we will never be enough.
Our hearts are breaking without a sound.
Fighting freedom, losing ground.

The path I take, I'll walk with fire.
I'll earth myself and seek the higher.
The path I take, I'll walk with fire.

Peace of mind, a gift for the gifted kind.
The haunted breed, the language I speak.

Into this sound, I carry all that's bad:
My hopes, my demons, my regrets.

We are so sated and we are so much.
But we will never, we will never be enough.
Our hearts are breaking without a sound.
Fighting freedom, losing ground.

The path I take, I'll walk with fire.
I'll earth myself and seek the higher.
The path I take, I'll walk with fire.
I'll earth myself and seek the higher.

The path I take, I'll walk with fire.
Walk with fire!
