

Face Of A Faith

Nellie McKay

You are the light I follow
You are the face of a faith I love
Oh, my darling believe in me

You are the hymn I cover
You are the king of an Indian dove
Oh, my darling the fever in me

I wait for a while, I know
But I let it go, yes, I let it go
My fear is gone

You are the hope I cherish
You are the care of a prayer I love
Oh, my darling believe in me, in me
Believe in me
