

Ghost

Neon Hitch

Ghost
I'm seeing ghosts
Ghost
Ghost
I'm seeing ghosts again

Are you're looking
Ooh, now keep on looking
Looking for yourself once more
You've gotten lucky
But lucky isn't money
Luck is just your karma come forward

And it's okay
If our paths decide to go their separate ways
But it's unholy that we divide
There's a path for us been pathed

I don't wanna do this on my own
There's room for the two of us on this throne
As the light gets closer
You feel like a ghost
Of a person that I used to know

Seeing ghosts again, ghost
Ghosts that look like a somebody I've known
I want you close again, close
Closer than you'll ever really know

The competition is their only mission
But what they fighting for?
It's hard to love again
Givin' their hearts back to them
'Cause I just want yours

And it's okay
If our paths decide to go their separate ways
But it's unholy that we divide
There's a path for us been pathed

I don't wanna do this on my own
There's room for the two of us on this throne
As the light gets closer
You feel like a ghost
Of a person that I used to know

Seeing ghosts again, ghost
Ghosts that look like a somebody I've known
I want you close again, close

Ghost
Ghost

Ghost
Ghost
Ghosts again

Ghost
Ghost
I'm seein' ghosts again

But I don't wanna do this on my own
Of a person that I used to know

Seein' ghosts again, ghost
Ghosting on that somebody I've known
