

It's Almost

Nesian Mystik

[Verse:]

It's almost like you're reading my mind
You know something's wrong
I know I promised you that I'd never lie
So I got something to tell you
See lately
We've been arguing
Not seeing eye to eye
Been driving me crazy
It's like the
Littlest things
Keep pulling my strings
Adding fuel to the fire
You don't know
Where to stop
Keep crossing the line
Stooping so low
Bringing up my past
When you I wish
There was a way
To turn the hands of time back

[Verse:]

I've been running it over in my head
And no ones winning
It feels like this is all just pretend
Not sure what were proving
To each other
Maybe it's to Embarrassing
So we play out the scene
Despite the Fact that it's
So obvious
That we're not happy
I don't know
Where to stop
Keep crossing the line
Stooping so low
Bringing up your past
When I know you wish
There was a way
To turn the hands of time back

[Bridge:]

So...
What do you want me to do?
What do you want me to say?
Cause I don't know where to go from here

[Verse x2]

We don't know
Where to stop
Keep crossing the line
Stooping so low
Bringing up our past
When I know we wish
There was a way
To turn the hands of time back
