[Verse 1]

[Donald:]

Oh no, watch out, Whats that? Watch yourself

Watch your step, watch your back, as a matter of fact

Who could it be, can you see, maybe

Tell me it looks like surprise coconuts from the city

(GREYLYNN, PONSONBY)

[Junior:]

Getting chopped in shop, non-stop when we rock op fob

(CENTRAL CITY)

Pay attention, or you might miss

The mystik villajah dropping ish

[Donald:]

With ula hammer influence rhymes with the lyrical

Parktake rotation up here I go, hand strong grab

Mind set back, ASH

(Living in the city ain't so bad)

[Feleti:]

Jandals to the pavement, coco urban dialects

Sky scrappers transform, to palm trees from the islands

Head phones attached with the bunga flax pack

Vibing out the fresh connection by word of mouth

The brown complexion a villajah intersection

Like flee markets forming a tropical collective

The poly-wave ain't changed we remain right here

Still roots in Grey Lynn arch dynasty atmosphere

Live by kava-bowl C-Fu within your sector

The hibiscus sent resonating to receptors

Nesian platoon infiltrating the C.B.D

The Central Bungafied dialects city M.C's

[Chorus]

[Bridge]

[Te Awanui and Che Fu:]

Country girls best to do your thing,

City boys best to run them things

City girls always stand their ground,

Country boys hold it down

[Verse 2]

[Donald:]

This me operation, this me mystik way
Fob by definition, get out me way
Aotearoa born, Kingdom MC organic urban villajah
Money back guarentee
No frills can you taste this, we keep the basics
Polysaturated flavours from the basement
I represent all klans from Auckland
Occasionally ride horse back with the horseman
We keep it hotter than to grannies in a bake off
Wearing tank tops, hanging half off, matched with fluoro pink thongs
Set up base camp so we adjust to the format
Nesian epic struggle, the pinnacle service rap

[Chorus]

[Beat change...]

[Che fu:]

Create a new avenue, show kats we can handle
Poly hiphop we keep it hot like umu rocks
Substansial knowledge of Origin definitely
Top of the list for this linguist (crazy)
Villajahs dominating mics all night
C-Fu Nesian Mystiks we go the distance
Auckland city central horified coconuts
Hooligan, fly headphones, with bass booming
