

The Champion

Neva Dinova

The champion, he locked up the fight
With a strong uppercut from his right hand
Might has overcome right again, he cried

I'm much too tired to explain
How I let my life get away
Older now everyday, I tried

It's not that I'm scared
But just that I care
What you're going through
Oh...

Breaking the rules one by one
Trying to convince all my friends
This'll never happen again
And I'll try to make amends
