

Sorry Not Sorry

New Years Day

I'm sorry, I'm not sorry

Sorry for the time I've wasted
Sorry for believing all the lies
I've let this go on for too long
I've kept this alive when I should have let us die

Sorry that I hurt you
I'm sorry but that's a lie
The truth is I don't care
It's your hurt or not for the tears you've made me cry

If you want to live, you gotta let love die

I'm not sorry now
Cuz forgiveness isn't right
I can't apologize
Cuz I don't mean it this time
So save your breath, I know it's cruel
But I'm not the mercy type
This is what walking away looks like

Burn down every bridge I built you
Buried all the promises alive
Learning how to forget you
Now I know why sometimes there's good in goodbye

Sorry that I hurt you
I'm sorry but that's a lie
The truth is I don't care
It's you're hurt or not for the tears you've made me cry

If you want to live, let love die

I'm not sorry now
Cuz forgiveness is your right
I can't apologize
Cuz I don't meant it this time
So save your breath I know it's cruel
But I'm not the mercy type
This is what walking away looks like

If you want to live, let love die
If you want to live, let love die

I'm not sorry now
Cuz forgiveness isn't right
I can't apologize
Cuz I don't meant it this time
So save your breath I know it's cruel
But I'm not the mercy type
This is what walking away looks like

I'm sorry, I'm not sorry
I'm sorry, I'm not sorry
