

Disaster

Newsboys

Ah Ah Ah Ah
(Yeah!)

I thought that I could fix it on my own
The sickness deep in my heart
I thought that I could find the healing deep inside of me
Underneath all these scars

I had to fall, had to fall apart, to find that You-

Love me even after
I am a disaster
And everything is shattered
On the floor
You pick me up and hold me
God, You are the only
Remedy my heart's been lookin' for
You're the cure

Ah Ah Ah Ah

I had my kingdom here, I had my throne
Had everything I could need (Oh oh!)
I put my world on empty promises, empty things
It ripped apart at the seams (Oh oh!)

I had to crash, had to crash and burn, to find that You-

Love me even after
I am a disaster
And everything is shattered
On the floor
You pick me up and hold me
God, You are the only
Remedy my heart's been lookin' for
You're the cure, the cure, the cure, You're the cure
You're the cure, the cure, the cure, You're the cure

Since the day that I was born
I was broken and torn
So human, so incomplete
But You never gave up
Never lessened Your love
That's the way that You'll always be

I had to fall apart to find You,
Love me even after I am a disaster
And everything is shattered
On the floor
You pick me up and hold me
God, You are the only
Remedy my heart's been lookin' for

You're the cure!
(I thought that I could fix it on my own)

You're the cure!
