

One Heart

Newsboys

Shipwrecked on the rocks of pride
Shipwrecked on the rocks of fear
My heart is torn apart when you're not here
Life goes by like a dream
When we die will it seem
That our hearts weren't always on the One

One heart, one mind, one soul
One heart, one mind, one soul
One heart after You

There are hearts undecided
Some are hard and subdivided
A heart couldn't break the chains on me
Let me plow up the ground
Make it so I can see
I want to grow, I want Your love in me

One heart, one mind, one soul
One heart, one mind, one soul
One heart after You

Well I was shipwrecked on the rocks, the rock of pride
Slowly and surely, in came the tide
Life goes by like a dream
When we die will it seem
That our life was wasted by the things we tasted
Wake up, wally, it's time to face it
Lifting Jesus up makes me feel up

One heart, one mind, one soul
One heart, one mind, one soul
One heart after You
