

I Think I'm Getting Older

Nightmare Of You

I stood up all night long just to see if you'd sit with me, and all I learned from doing that is:
People are so tiring.

I don't fit in anywhere, especially in my own skin
I was never ever young; Always just a tired man

Oh my God,
I think I'm getting older
Oh my God,
I think I'm getting older

See the sea turtles swim and feed off of Maui rocks
We too must eat
to survive, and that might prove that I'm alive

Oh my God,
I think I'm getting older
Oh my God,
I think I'm getting older

Oh my God,
I think I'm getting older
Oh my God,
I think I'm getting older
Oh my God,
I think I'm getting older
Oh my God,
I know I'm getting older
