So much for happy endings
I know it don't work like that, no
So much of me belonged to Someone who didn't know exactly what they had, mm

I wish that you could be happy with nothing but me
I wish my love was enough but I just can't compete

Canary diamond
Canary diamond
It wasn't worth me riding in the backseat
Acting like I'm happy
Knowing that you'd only want me when you didn't have me anymore
I was yours and you were never mine...
