

Home Is Where The Hurt Is

Nils Lofgren

Start sorting out your problems, you're gonna last
Time to stop this living in the past
Some close friends need a change of heart
But that's not where your problems start

Home is where the hurt is
Home is where the hurt is

Swelling up with anger, don't you bust
Pointing shaky fingers, might be a curse
Dropping hope in wishing wells
In dreams you hide what time still tells

Home is where the hurt is
Pull the reins on your changing heart
Troubles growing in your backyard
Home is where the hurt is

~~~♪♪♪ ~~~

I'm taking a train

~~~♪♪♪ ~~~

Home is where the hurt is

~~~♪♪♪ ~~~

You wonder of this life, is it over
Better check your hand, draw a card, start you motor
The world's a mirror shouting back
Respect yourself, get on the right track

Home is where the hurt is
Pull the reins on your changing heart
Troubles growing in your backyard
Home is where the hurt is

Home is where the hurt is
Pull the reins on your changing heart
Troubles growing in your backyard
Home is where the hurt is
