

Return of the Mother

Nina Hagen

The return of the Mother!
The return of the Goddess of Love!
The return of the Mother!
The return of the Goddess of Love!

Come to me! Hail Mary
What do I see?
Who do we have here now?
We wanna take a ride with you

Come to me! Hail Mary
Come to me! Hail Mary
The return of the Mother!
The return of the Goddess of Love!

My revelation is a revolution
Establish justice for all in my world
And if you truly love me, you will change everything for me
And with you always, I'm always with you.

Come to me! Hail Mary
What do I see?
Who do we have here now?
We wanna take a ride with you

Come to me! Hail Mary
Come to me! Hail Mary, hail Mary

Those who have awaken to the Mother
Have given birth to the Divine Child within themselves
They have all a certain look like no other
Like the dog that died next to my hotel.

The return of the Mother!
The return of the Goddess of Love!

Every soul turns towards the Mother!
Every soul turns to the Goddess of Love!
Every soul turns towards the Mother!
Every soul turns to the Goddess of Love!
