Burning Bush (Everybody)

Are u in a rage Are u stressed out Are u wondering what 4 And tell everybody 2 get out U are in a good mood Only when u are at home U smoke so much of... That u can not get along

Do u feel persecuted 4 the sake of love Throw ur hands up can u feel me Do u feel guilty cos u are a victim of ur truth Identify urself, can u feel me

Do u hide behind ur holiness And make other people confess Are u a teacher, not willing 2 learn Or a scholar not bold enough 2 teach Are u, are u the one That I am very pleased 2 meet

Oh what I see this world Is this life's so bitter so sweet

Do u admit that u are part of this system Throw ur hands up we stand up Do u wanna face this pain and all this world grief Raise ur hands up, can u feel me

Do u know the truth of our existence Do u know we are stuck in these system U can not extract urself U are here, right in the game
