

Time For A Change

Obey the Brave

it's only been a couple months and all I think about is us we rocked the places far away a new girl for everyday

no more 9 to 5
get up! Move on! Gotta feel alive!
Can't shut the voice that lies within a new song for every sin for every sin

head up in the clouds
life is music, play it loud don't care how bad it sounds I live for the underground keep on! No matter what I do keep on! I always come back to you when things fall out of range just scream "it's time for a..."

get up! Move on! Gotta feel alive!
We played in places no one knows a new hat for every show every night, we play on and on and it feels so right can't stop what's going on

stay from the pack no turning back

it's all a game, just gotta play it right don't like how we take control?
You know that's how we roll nothing to prove, we just do our thing yeah! We don't give a fuck just crank the volume up

go against the grain no, can't slow us down we won't stop til we get enough

and I fell so alive, so alive!
I'll stick tight to my plan you'll never understand
