

Paint The Pictures

of Verona

I paint the pictures
Of the oceans
I've never seen
I hold the candle
Through the darkness
So I believe
There is a future
Find a narrow
Point me home
I paint the pictures
Of emotions
I've never owned

Send me on my way
I drifting out of here
Into out of space
I've found a place out there
Find me on the moon
You'll never be alone
Here among the stars
Is home away from home

You tell the stories
Of the forces
That build your fire
You wait for silence
Find the sources
Or you'll expire
There is a sorrow
Of an island I cant cross
You stuck in your cave
Centipede now
Filled with mistrust

Send me on my way
I drifting out of here
Into outer space
I've find a place out there
Find me on the moon
You'll never be alone
Here among the stars
Is home away from home

There's a moment of surrender
There's a chance to make it better
Find the earth now and remember
There's no moment
That's forever

I paint the pictures
Of the oceans
I've never seen
I hold the candle
Through the darkness
So I believe
