

Zero Gravity

of Verona

Time's standing still
While I wait
For your return
You, leave me here
What remains, is only the hurt
Touch me in waves, softly
Fall beneath the surface, now
Now I'm not afraid
I've been waiting for this moment
And then you're out
'Cause you are the tin man
I cannot hear you
Where did you go?
You, you slowly vanish
I cannot feel you
Didn't you know?
You left me alone
You, whisper my name
Say you're glad
That I came Stay, pull me in
I can't stand
So, I'll give in
Why can't you stay?
You keep turning on
Then stopping now
Why can't you wait?
Promise, I will never let you down
Cause you are the tin man
I cannot hear you
Where did you go?
You, you slowly vanish
I cannot feel you
Where did you go?
I sit alone
And color your memory
With all the stars
I see in the sky
And I'm still here waiting
Watching the hands
Of my time march by
You say my name
And it just sounds better
You touch my soul
And it's all okay
So I will wait
And I'll pray on sunset
Watch as the gold
Slowly drifts away
Drifts away
Cause you are the tin man
I cannot hear you
Where did you go?
You, you slowly vanish
I cannot feel you
Didn't you know?
