

Car Games

Olivia Newton-John

Have you seen them
Playing car games
Revvng up your heart
Before the lights change
Have you been there
And not been aware
That you are the victim
Of a highway love affair

Thru your window
There's a stranger
Cruising right beside you
Courting danger
When your eyes meet
For one second you believe
You're another victim
Of a highway love affair

Car games - faces with no names
Freeway lovers lanes
Car games - silent rendezvous
For a mile or two
Playing car games

Every morning there's another
Chance to fuel the fantasy all over
Are we cheating
If it's only in our minds
Have you been a victim
Of a highway love affair

Car games - faces with no names
Freeway lovers lanes
Car games - silent rendezvous
For a mile or two
Playing car games
Silent rendezvous, for a mile or two
Playing car games, car games
