Dreamworld

Olsen Brothers

If you're a winner, who's always winning, What will you choose not to fail not to loose, And you are looking round every corner, What will you say, when the girl comes your way.

Dreamworld I can fly, Among the clouds over great mountains high, Dreamworld cross the clear blue sky, Dreamworld I can win, A little love and the sail's full of wind, Dreamworld let the journey begin.

If you're a dancer and like to Tango, Open your door in a glide cross the floor.

Dreamworld I can fly, Among the clouds over great mountains high, Dreamworld cross the clear blue sky, Dreamworld I can win, A little love and the sail's full of wind, Dreamworld let the journey begin.
